vs.

Edel Felix Castro

Case No. 1:19-CR-00274-NONE-SKO-3

CONSENT TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

I, Edel Felix Castro, have discussed with Mark De La Torre, Pretrial Services Officer, modifications of my release conditions as follows:

Preface: On September 13, 2020, the defendant, and his 28-year-old step-son, got into an altercation, which led to the defendant pushing and placing his hands on his step-son's neck. This reportedly occurred due to his step-sons' disheveled bedroom and empty beer cans on the floor. His step-son called the Modesto Police Department to report and document the incident; however, he did not want charges filed, and none were filed. The defendant immediately reported his law enforcement contact to Pretrial Services. The defendant has a history of compliance with Pretrial Services, and we believe he would benefit from mental health counseling to assist him in obtaining better coping skills to manage his stress. As a result, and as the defendant is very willing, the request is to:

Add the following condition of release: You must participate in a program of medical or psychiatric treatment as approved by the pretrial services officer. You must pay all or part of the costs of the counseling services based upon your ability to pay, as determined by the pretrial services officer.

All other conditions not in conflict with this order shall remain in full force and effect.

I consent to this modification of my release conditions and agree to abide by this modification.
